For more information about the cast in this U.S. tour, visit <https://hamiltonmusical.com/us-tour/>

Will there be an ASL performances?

Yes, the signed interpreted performance is Sunday, March 22 at 7:30 p.m. For more information, please email the FSCJ Artist Series at info@fscjartistseries.org

What if I can't find my tickets or they get lost in the mail?

Tickets that have not been received, for any reason, including lost or stolen, will be held at Will Call under the original account-holder name as a Seat Location Pass, and may be picked up with a valid photo ID beginning 90 minutes prior to curtain time on the performance date ONLY. No exceptions.

How and when will I receive my tickets?

At the time of purchase, you will be able to select mail or will call. Hard tickets will be mailed to the address you provide or will be held at will call under the name on your account. Your name on your account should match the name on your photo ID, as you will need a photo ID to pick up your tickets at will call. E-Tickets or print at home tickets are not available.

For orders placed online, there will be delayed mailing starting one month prior to the first performance.
